

Control Through Web

Written by Bob Snyder
13. 06. 2008

Companion is a control architecture leveraging server-less smart appliances running Linux applications and intuitive Flash interface designs. Capable of managing all aspects of modern home and commercial systems installations using both pre-integrated mode (with inclusive subsystem drivers) and semi-or-full Custom mode control.

Integrated Smartscreens from Convergent Living offer ease of set-up through using a web browser. Select best-of-breed subsystem drivers via drop-down menus then customize the screens for room relevance.

Go Companion Smartscreens