

New Rako Hand Controller

Written by Bob Snyder
01. 08. 2008

Rako will be exhibiting its multi-channel dimming system at CEDIA and launching the RAH-SMART– a new Rako hand controller that offers a stylish handset option with colour display screen to give more user information and flexibility.

The hand controller can be used in multiple rooms, selectable from the menu, and allows room, scene and channel naming. Curtain and blind controls with open/closed and individual blind control options are also available on screen.

Go RAKO