

Android Gets Pro Crestron Apps

Written by Marco Attard
18. 10. 2011

Crestron launches the Mobile Pro control App for Android-- turning any Android device into a Crestron touch screen controlling any connected system from virtually anywhere.

Using any available internet connection, the Mobile Pro app displays real-time room temperatures, shade positions, lighting levels and music metadata, as well as streaming video from web-based security cameras.

The app is also cross-platform, meaning customers can control their home systems using either PC, iOS or Android apps.

Go Crestron Mobile Pro Now Available for Android