

CEDIA Region 1 opens entries for the 2014 CEDIA Awards, now with a simplified online entry process making it even easier to take part in what the association describes as the Oscars of the custom installation industry.

The Awards are open for all Region 1 Home Technology Professional (HTP) members -- meaning UK and Europe, CIS, MEA, India and Pakistan.

New for 2014 are a redesigned website, two new categories, and the aforementioned simplified online entry process. Members now can submit as many project as they want in multiple categories, and can draft, edit and review entries before submission.

Submissions require a variety of documentation, including the client brief, solution details, customer verdict and supporting information such as high resolution images, kit lists and schematics.

The CEDIA Awards 2014 categories are as follows:

- Best Media Room under £15000
- Best Media Room over £15000
- Best Home Cinema under £40000
- Best Home Cinema £40000 – £100000
- Best Home Cinema over £100000
- Best Integrated Home under £100000
- Best Integrated Home £100000 – £250000
