

New Chairman for CEDIA

Written by Marco Attard
11. 01. 2011

CEDIA names Randy Stearns, Engineered Environments owner, as its new chairman.

He replaces the late Randy Vaughan, who passed away on December 23, 2010.

Stearns served on the CEDIA Board of Directors since 2005, and has been an active CEDIA member since 1993. His involvement with the organisation includes Industry Outreach Council Chair, EXPO Chair, Treasurer, Best Practices Action Team, Instructor, Subject Matter Expert, and Finance Committee. Most recently he was Vice Chairman for the Board of Directors.

His company is a perennial CE Pro 100 member and is a multiple CEDIA Electronic Lifestyles Award winner.

Stearns assumes the role and responsibilities of chairman immediately.
